

TREATY UNACCEPTABLE TO AUSTRIA

TAKE VIEW THAT TERMS ARE BASED ON MIGHT

People, However, Apparently Anxious to Accept Conditions

(By The Associated Press.)

Like the German government, the Austrian government is said to be dissatisfied with the peace terms of the allied and associated powers, which are declared by one of responsible newspapers of Vienna to be unacceptable.

People Apparently Apathetic

Unlike the German populace at large however, the Austrian people apparently are apathetic having expected no easy terms and are willing, even anxious, to accept the conditions as laid down and thus bring peace to the sorely stricken former empire, which is rendered by the treaty virtually an inland state of small territorial proportions. Nevertheless, the general opinion among the Austrians seems to be that the terms are based on might and not on President Wilson's fourteen points.

In Paris the council of four continues to discuss points brought out by the German counter-proposals to the German peace treaty, especially as concerns territorial questions and reparations. Experts on both these questions have been called before the council for conferences and the belief apparently prevails in unofficial quarters in Paris that some modifications may be expected in the original terms of the treaty, particularly as regards the Saar Basin and Silesia.

Discussion of the protest of Germany that, being left without merchant ships, she is rendered impotent to resume her trade and thereby unable to aid in paying the indemnities asked, also has been taken up by the council.

Council May Meet Report.

The expectation is that the council will meet reports of the recent necessity to render a quick decision on the matter in Germany. One report has it that Herr Noske, the German minister of defense has inspected the coast defenses and ordered the garrisons to be ready for emergencies.

An appeal to the American people by Magistrates of 1200 German municipalities, representing virtually half the population of Germany has been signed. It demands a "peace of justice" under President Wilson's fourteen points and protests against continuation of the blockade against Germany.

Apparently the Rhenish republic under Dr. Dorten has been firmly established at Weidenbaden with aid from French officers.

Bolshevik advances are to the effect that the autonomy of Mongolia has been proclaimed by a congress convened by General Semenov, the Cossack leader, and that Semenov was made "grand duke of Mongolia."

The Bolsheviks are reported to have started a successful counter offensive against the Estonians and other troops advancing on Petrograd.

SENATE ADOPTS SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT

Peace Council Working For Early Action

(By The Associated Press.)

PARIS, June 4.—(By The Associated Press.)—This has been an anxious day through peace conference circles, with both the German and Austrian treaties in the balance and every effort being made toward early and united action.

The council of four considered the Austrian treaty in the morning to complete the military and reparations terms, omitted when the document was delivered Monday. Later the council turned to the German counter-proposals and called in experts.

Hold Private Conferences.

Many private conferences also were going on, including one between Colonel House of the American delegation, and A. J. Balfour, British foreign secretary, all seeking to clarify the situation and determine the course of action.

The prevailing view of those taking part was hopeful of early satisfactory results. They admitted conditions were difficult and differences were rather sharply drawn but insisted that there was nothing like an impasse or anything threatening an agreement.

Indications were that certain general results already are beginning to take form. The German counter-proposals as a whole undoubtedly will be rejected but a number of suggestions may be embodied in the allied treaty, not with any purpose of modifying or softening the document but for making it workable and achieving the supreme end of getting it signed and restoring peace.

Reduce Occupation Period.

Certain concrete results also appear to be taking form, namely, the fixing of reparations at a definite sum around one hundred billion marks, instead of giving the commission indefinite authority to assess beyond that sum; reducing the period of occupation of the western frontier from 15 to 10 years; readjustment of the Silesia terms at which Germany was greatly aroused so that the population may have self-determination, probably through a plebiscite.

With respect to the league of nations, the British and American views at first inclined toward additions in Germany. One report has it that Herr Noske, the German minister of defense has inspected the coast defenses and ordered the garrisons to be ready for emergencies.

An appeal to the American people by Magistrates of 1200 German municipalities, representing virtually half the population of Germany has been signed. It demands a "peace of justice" under President Wilson's fourteen points and protests against continuation of the blockade against Germany.

SENATE TREATY FIGHT TURNS TO NEW CHANNELS

Would Probe Lodge and Borah Statements

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Secret service heads were uncommunicative but hopeful tonight as to prospects in the nation-wide hunt for the perpetrators of the series of bomb outrages Monday night. William J. Flynn, appointed but not formally installed as head of the investigations bureau of the department of justice, was assisting in the operations and it was admitted that material had been gathered which had proven helpful.

Members of a coroner's jury assembled today to find a verdict as to the death of the bomb planter by the explosion of his own bomb at the home of Attorney General Palmer adjourned without attempting to complete a verdict.

Officials said there was nothing to decide in view of the circumstances and that the jury would be called together again if more facts became available.

Washington police still were working in conjunction with New York and Philadelphia authorities and with the special agents of the department of justice but no arrests were made. President Wilson, in a telegram to Mr. Palmer today said:

"My heartfelt congratulations on your escape. I am deeply thankful that the miscreants failed in all their attempts."

Search for Suspects.

Chicago, June 4.—Chicago detectives were given an afternoon off and directed to report tonight at 3 o'clock presumably for another combing of the city for suspects in connection with the eastern bomb outrages. Dozens of suspects arrested last night were released today.

A new arrest was that of French Lankie alleged to be an L. W. W. said to have told a hotel porter, three of the large hotels were to be blown up.

May Deport Radicals.

Cleveland, O., June 4.—Whole-sale deportation of more than a score of radicals taken in raids here last night during a search for those responsible for the bombing of Mayor Harry L. Davis' home seemed almost certain tonight.

Twenty eight men now held, it was stated following a conference between federal officials and Cleveland police, will be turned over to the immigration authorities tomorrow.

AMERICAN MARINES LAND AT COSTA RICA

SAN SALVADOR, Republic of Salvador, June 4.—American marines have been landed at Puntarenas, and Port Limon, Costa Rica, because of the revolution against the government headed by General Tinoco, according to dispatches printed in newspapers here.

The revolution in Costa Rica has been going on for two months and has been attracting considerable attention in Central American countries for the past four weeks. Forces said to have been recruited from political exiles formed bands along the Nicaraguan frontier near Lake Nicaragua and advanced southward, flashing on several occasions with forces commanded by Joaquin Tinoco, Costa Rican minister of war. The fighting has been restricted almost entirely to the mountainous country near the Nicaraguan border. Puntarenas is a port on the Pacific coast of Costa Rica and is the Pacific terminus of the railroad extending across Costa Rica to Port Limon, which is the most important harbor on the Atlantic side of the country.

WILSON RECEIVES PLANE COMMANDERS

PARIS, June 4.—President Wilson received Lieut. Commander A. C. Read, commander of the American naval seaplane N C-4; Commander John H. Towers, who was in charge of the flight of the three American seaplanes which attempted to fly from America to Europe and Lieut. Commander P. N. L. Bellinger commander of the naval seaplane N C-1 this morning. He congratulated them for the work they accomplished during the flight.

AWARD SERVICE CROSSES

Washington, June 4.—Awards of Distinguished Service Crosses by General Pershing announced by the war department today included Captain Harry R. Chadwick, Chicago; Second Lieut. Charles B. Allen, St. Louis; Corporals Gus W. Pulaback, St. Louis and James L. Waters, Antioch, Ill.; Private Charles Falsico, (deceased), St. Louis; Sam Goldberg, St. Louis.

IMPERATOR AND AGWIDALE COLLIDE

NEW YORK, June 4.—The former German liner Imperator which sailed from this port yesterday for Bremer collided about 300 miles northwest of Sandy Hook last night with the Steamship Agwidale from Rotterdam for New York. A wireless message from the Agwidale stated that she was proceeding for this port under her own power, but requested a convoy. As no word was received from the Imperator she is presumed to have resumed her voyage.

A later wireless message stated that the Imperator was damaged and that the damage to the Agwidale was slight. A heavy fog is said to have caused the collision.

Make Progress To Make Five Probes of War Expenditures

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Unanimous approval was given by San Francisco June 2 70 56 the house today to a resolution increasing the war expenditures committee to fifteen members so that five separate investigations of disposition of funds by the war department may be made. The vote came after two hours debate and after the Republicans had refused to permit the Democrats to offer an amendment to the resolution under which the committee membership would have divided nine Republicans and six Democrats instead of ten Republicans and five Democrats.

The Republican leaders explained that inquiries were planned into expenditures for aviation, ordnance, camps and communications, quartermaster supplies and in foreign countries. Each inquiry will be conducted by a sub-committee composed of two Republicans and one Democrat.

The resolution came before the house today from the rules committee as a special order of business. During the debate the Democrats charged that the investigations were to be made by the Republicans, in search of political capital for the 1920 campaign, and declared they were welcomed by the administration.

Republican spokesmen, however, said the investigations were to be "non-partisan" and were designed solely to inform the country what had become of the sixteen billions of dollars appropriated for the war department during the war.

"This is not to be in the spirit of making political capital," said Representative Mondell, the Republican leader, "but to provide an audit so as to inform the people regarding the great expenditures."

Representative Garrett, Democrat of Tennessee, declared investigating committees during Democratic control of congress were divided politically five to four or four to three and that the only time in congressional history that the majority had two to one representation was in the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy which he said "was pregnant with sad memories for the Republicans."

STATE ASSEMBLY TABLES "HOME RULE" MEASURE

Proponents May Not Be Able to Resurrect Bill

(By The Associated Press.)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 4.—The "home rule" bill, drawn for the purpose of giving cities control over public utilities within their boundaries, was tabled in both branches of the general assembly late today. It is not believed that proponents of the measure will be able to resurrect it at this session. Control of all utilities now rests with the public utilities commission. No attempt was made by Representative Wanless, sponsor of the house bill, to get it from the table after the unfavorable report of the house public utilities committee had been made by Chairman Brinkman.

In the senate public utilities committee the Jewell bill went on the table 13 to 8, on motion of Senator Barr after Senator Jewell had failed in an attempt to have the measure sent out without recommendation.

Would Increase Personnel.

The senate utilities committee, following action on the Jewell bill, reported out a bill by Senator Barr, increasing the number of public utilities commissioners from five to seven. It came into the senate and went on the calendar. Senator Barr said he believed that a commission of large personnel would be able better to satisfy the growing demands made upon it. Salaries of the commissioners would remain at $7,000 a year.

The administration "blue sky" law, to prevent fraudulent operations in securities was passed by the senate 44 to 0 with an emergency clause, late today. It passed the house May 21.

Bills Passed by House.

Among the bills passed by the house which now go to the senate were the following:

F. A. McCarthy—Providing for a commission to study renting conditions.

Thompson—Providing that the state advertise for bids each year on state monies to learn what banks will pay the most interest on state funds.

Boyle—Providing that newspapers or other periodicals can collect for publications sent through the mails unless they can show a subscription contract.

Committee Amends Bill.

Senator Barr's bill limiting the working hours of women workers to nine hours in any day and forty hours in any week, which passed the senate, came out of the house industrial affairs committee today with an amendment affecting mercantile establishments. As the measure passed the senate, mercantile concerns were exempted from the law. The amendment would permit women employed in such firms to work nine hours a day or fifty-four hours a week. There were no other changes in the senate bill which exempted hospitals and canning factories in the rush seasons.

The house today tabled the LePort bill fixing the salary of inspectors in Chicago at $5,000 and in other cities at $1,800 a year.

Advance Armory Bills.

Armory appropriation bills for Danville and Peoria were advanced in the house to second reading.

Corporal Raymond Powell of Joliet, a senate committee clerk, was presented to the upper chamber today as having won the Belgian Croix de Guerre for bravery July 4, last, at Hamel.

With five Australians, Corporal Powell cleaned out a German machine gun nest, capturing seventeen machine guns and sixty Germans. The senate appropriated $25 to send Powell to Chicago tomorrow where he was summoned by General Bell to receive his award. He also wears medals from the British and American armies.

Former United States Senator James Hamilton Lewis, addressed members of both houses and the public in representatives' hall tonight on the league of nations.

DECLARE STRIKE OFF.

Chicago, June 4.—The strike of union bakers has been officially declared off, it was announced today and all of the 1,800—some of whom had already returned to work—will get a week's increase of $2 and a 20 cents an hour increase for work done between 11 p. m. and 5 p. m. About 1,500 wagon drivers and several hundred engineers returned to work with the bakers.

Rival Factions Hold Parades At Winnipeg

(By The Associated Press.)

WINNIPEG, Man., June 4.—Winnipeg, strike-torn for twenty days, today witnessed the most spectacular scenes of rival demonstrations which have taken place since the walkout of the union workers on May 15.

Several thousand marchers, mostly returned soldiers, participated in two parades to the parliament buildings, but the processions did not meet and there was no trouble.

Anti-Strikers Parade.

Returned soldiers who refused to endorse the general strike and who repudiated the demonstrations which returned soldiers, strike sympathizers have made since last Friday, had their first parade today. Army officers, hundreds of soldiers and some union men were in line. One banner carried at the head of the parade bore the inscription:

"To hell with the alien enemy; God save the King."

This parade visited parliament before the strikers procession reached the provincial capitol. Speakers told Premier T. C. Norris that they represented the majority element of the great war veteran's association which stood for law and order and for recognition of constitutional government. Norris applauded the remarks.

At this time the parade of strike sympathizers, which included several hundred returned soldiers was about a mile and a half away. Army officers and soldiers in the parade which stood before parliament said their forces were not "looking for trouble" but that if trouble did come "they would meet it like true Canadians."

The real fire works were touched off when the anti-strike parade arrived at the city hall. Mayor Chase F. Gray told the marchers that the central strike committee has taken steps to curtail the milk and bread supply.

Threaten to Retaliate.

"They'll rescind those orders or we'll tear the trades and labor temple to pieces," shouted a parader.

A roar of approval followed. "We are going to parade in greater numbers tomorrow and we will visit the labor temple," said another speaker.

The parade disbanded at the city hall, about the time the parade of strikers and sympathizers passed parliament and moved on to Victoria park for a mass meeting.

Leaders of both delegations declared they would make demonstrations again tomorrow and neither side made any effort to conceal the belief that trouble probably would come if the parades came together.

Concerning the strike itself, today's developments were of a give-and-take nature. A few of the thousands on strike returned to work. On the other hand, union leaders ordered out engineers at bakeries and creameries. Some of the dairy teamsters walked out. The strikers arranged to open milk and bread depots through the city after being informed by bakers and dairymen that they would attempt to operate their plants, despite the strike orders.

LAST CONTINGENT OF 33RD DUE TODAY

CHICAGO, June 4.—Indications tonight were that weather permitting, Chicago and Illinois would receive the third and last contingent of the 33rd Division tomorrow with as great a demonstration as any of the other were given. The governor's committee had all plans arranged.

The special trains carrying the returning fighters were slowed up by orders to trainmen today and tonight the cars were rolling across Michigan at a speed intended to bring the vanguard into Chicago late tonight the others following at half hour intervals during the early morning.

The men were to remain on their trains in the railroad yards until 7:30 a. m. The plans following the greeting of relatives in Grant Park. Dinner at the big hotels will follow the parade with entertainment and mingling with friends until entrainment for Camp Grant for demobilization.

The returning units are the 122nd, 123rd and 14th Field Artillery, 108th Engineers, 108th Field Signal Battalion, 108th Sanitary Train and Fifty Eighth Artillery Brigade Headquarters.

Washington, June 4.—Dr. John R. Mott, secretary of the national war work council and international committee of the Y. M. C. A., was decorated today with the Distinguished service medal by Secretary Baker.

ACTION ENDS 40 YEAR FIGHT IN CONGRESS

Measure Now Goes to States for Ratification

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Action by congress on equal suffrage—subject of a fight of forty years duration—ended late today in adoption by the senate by a vote of 56 to 25 of the historic Susan B. Anthony constitutional amendment resolution.

The proposed amendment adopted by the house by a vote of 394 to 89 May 21, as the first act of the new congress now goes to the states, ratification by legislation of three-fourths of which is required for its incorporation in the federal constitution.

Two More Than Required.

The roll call today showed two votes more than the necessary two-thirds for the resolution which was drafted by Susan B. Anthony in 1875 and introduced by Senator Sergeant of California in 1878. Counting paired and absent members, the senate actually stood 66 to 30 for the measure.

Loud applause, unchecked by the presiding officer, swept the senate chamber when the vote was announced following two days debate and many jubilation meetings were in progress tonight at headquarters of various women organizations have been active in support of the measure.

Immediately after the senate's action, the resolution was taken to Speaker Gillette's office and signed. It was rushed back to the senate for its presiding officer's signature, but arrived after the senate had adjourned and will be approved tomorrow.

President Wilson's signature it was stated, is not necessary although the resolution will be sent to the white house as usual and may be signed by the executive. It will be certified to the states by the state department.

Whoever thinks that there is an early prospect of lower grain costs should look at the market reports. Corn options for December run around $1.40 which certainly gives proof that the farmer is not to be required to return to the pre-war level. In other words, the farmer if he chose today could readily sell his 1919 crop for delivery in December at a price of $1 or better per bushel. High prices are here to stay—at least for some time to come.

The tax amendment passed the senate by a heavy majority and is expected to fair well in the house. Its adoption will mean the abolition of the board of equalization and the appointment of a tax board in accordance with the plan Governor Lowden has advocated. The measure gained a great deal of strength because of one method used to defeat it—the attempt to show that the tax measure was prompted by the failure of the board to grant the Pullman car company's request. Mrs. Lowden, before her marriage was Miss Pullman.

THE OPTIMISTIC VIEW.

Rains continue to come and in recent days there have been many gloomy predictions that wheat was badly injured, blown down by the wind and tangled by the wind and rain. Already the cheering report has come that cases of injury in Morgan county are few and that with a fair amount of sunny weather now most of the "down" wheat will straighten up. At any rate, as one Morgan farmer has said: "If there had not been heavy rains, there was every prospect of serious damage this year by chinch bugs, and rain is far preferable to a general insect attack."

LEARNING THE VALUE OF SERVICE

Frank A. Vanderlip, president of the National City Bank of New York, a national figure in finance, and L. R. Goddard, a prominent Chicago banker, have both announced their retirement. Neither is old and it is safe to say they have no intention of quitting work. In fact, Mr. Vanderlip has said that he expects to do "some sort of useful work." These two financiers indicate that they have succeeded in business and acquired in accordance with their needs and are now ready to withdraw from private business and devote at least part of their time to public work. The action is significant in that it calls attention to the growing enthusiasm for public service that men of large affairs and experience are manifesting.

This can be put down as one of the war results, for while it may not be true of the two mentioned, it is true that many strong, successful business men during the war period for the first time took a large interest in public service and so learned something of the rewards of "those who serve." That was a distinct war benefit.

Mr. Hines declares that it will take about thirty per cent increase in freight rates to put the railroads on a paying basis, and offers this prospect in addition to the twenty five per cent increase made last year. Some shippers have found the reputed twenty five per cent increase on some articles was really fifty per cent.

There is much in the theory of joint operation of roads to suggest less expense and greater efficiency, but the figures do not go to prove the advantage of government operation. Most shippers and patrons are counting the weeks until the roads are returned to the owners.

THE LONG BATTLE FOR SUFFRAGE WON.

The Woman's Suffrage resolution was adopted by the U. S. Senate yesterday with a margin of two above the necessary two-thirds vote. It will be remembered that at the last session of congress the suffrage measure failed in the senate by just one vote. The question of constitutional amendment will now be submitted to the states and it is quite a safe prophecy that equal suffrage will be granted as it should in all justice have been granted years ago.

The fight for suffrage has been going on in congress for forty years. While there have been some misguided friends of suffrage, others well poised have kept up the campaign thru the years and to them the victory won is the reward for undying faith and the belief that some day they would win.

THE BANKER, THE FRIEND OF THE PEOPLE.

Jacksonville will be honored today by the presence of scores of bankers from group eight of the Illinois Bankers association, together with thirty five or forty from Chicago. It occasionally happens that bankers are charged with some of the unfortunate conditions of business and society, but the fact remains that the people and the country owe much to their bankers. There is occasionally a banker found of the Shylock type who is grasping and ready to take unfair advantage, but the bankers of that type are few and far between. The vast majority are men of broad vision and sound judgment, ready to lend their aid to any legitimate business enterprise. They are ready to trust men and women who are worthy of confidence and it is commonly understood that a large percentage of loans are made on character rather than on mere financial assets.

The banker is a friend to business, a friend to society, and without him the wheels of commerce would soon stop and the machinery of government be very, very badly clogged.

CHILDREN'S INTERESTS GUARDED.

Eighteen states have given official recognition to the needs of their children by creating special divisions directed to look after children's interests, according to a statement issued by the Children's Bureau, United States Department of Labor. The first division of this sort was created in New York in 1914. Kansas, Ohio, New Jersey, Massachusetts, and Louisiana secured their divisions in 1915; Montana created one in 1917.

In the 17 months since the last of January, 1918, 11 new children's divisions have been created, an increase of 157 per cent. The increase has kept pace with the Children's year campaign for healthier children, which was announced in January, 1918. One of the objects of the campaign was to secure the establishment of more state divisions especially charged with the care of children.

Florida, Pennsylvania, Minnesota, North Carolina, South Carolina, Kentucky, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Indiana, Connecticut, and Rhode Island, are the 11 states which have recently created new children's divisions.

Rippling Rhymes
By Walt Mason

BE SURE.

Be sure the voters want to hear you before you rise to make a spiel; alas, the weary people near you don't always tell how bored they feel. The world is full of desolation and broken hearts and ruined homes, because of wind and declamation, of stale remarks and quoted poems. Be sure your neighbors like earned singing before you start the graphophone, or some one may be moved to fling a brick, a clinker or a stone. Far better is the evening quiet that's undisturbed by crated song, than insurrection, strife or riot kicked up by music maddened throng. Be sure you never are infringing on others' rights, whatever you do; for human happiness is hanging on keeping this sane course in view. Be sure your neighbors like your chickens, before you turn the sweet things loose, or they'll be angry as the dickens, which is another word for deuce. That man is to his sex a credit, this woody world he much adorns, whose course, though swiftly he may tread it, encroaches on no human corns. Be just to others as you waddle along the pathway you pursue, and men will say you are a model, and name their infants after you.

ERROR IN DATE

Some excellent authorities have been stating that the cyclone which prostrated Literberry took place in the wrong year. That fearful disaster visited the village in the north part of the county, May 18, 1883. Many in the place and some in Jacksonville yet have a vivid recollection of that time. Passavant hospital possessed much less facilities then than now and the floors were covered with victims. It was said that Aunt Susanne Henderson had hardly a square inch of whole skin or flesh on her body. A threshing machine was lifted bodily, raised over a building and dropped on the other side. A baby was found alive between some furrows in a corn field and many more incidents could be related of the fearful event.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

THE BARTONS AGAIN

By Ensley Moore

(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

Note: In the Journal of April 9, 1919, was published the story of the Rev. Charles B. Barton.

It is an idea of the writer of these sketches that the people of the place from which one old resident came are as much interested in their history as the people with whom their last days were spent. So the "O. J." man sometimes sends sketches to the birth places of old settlers. This was done in the case of Mr. Barton, his birth place being Fitchburg, Mass. This elicited a hearty acknowledgment from the librarian of the Historical Society of that place, Miss Theresa N. Garfield. She added: "It contains much of interest to Fitchburg people especially the mention of Rev. Titus T. Barton who one of our early pastors, and whose death and subsequent life after leaving Fitchburg has not been universally known to the people here. The reading of the article will form a part of the program of the next meeting of this society * * *"

The lady was informed that this writer had considerable more data regarding Rev. T. T. Barton, and she requested a copy of it. This was sent, and the following extract from the Fitchburg Sentinel of May 20, 1919, shows what was made of it:

"Ex-Mayor Coolidge Speaks at Historical Society. Reese papers read.

Ignace Paderewski, noted pianist and premier of the new Polish republic, is endeavoring to organize a government "by the people" like unto that which characterizes our own land, according to a statement made at the meeting of the Fitchburg Historical society by ex-Mayor Marcus A. Coolidge, Monday evening. Mr. Coolidge represented the United States on the Commission of Control which left President Wilson's party in Paris early this year. Mr. Coolidge's talk was impromptu, following a session filled with reading of old papers, the most interesting of which was one dealing with the life and study of Rev. Titus Theodore Barton, the first minister of the Calvinistic Congregational church.

The Americans are heralded in Poland as the saviors of the world, the ex-mayor said. They are called the "win-out" boys, and in the words of some of the leading Poles, "the whole world knew it was over when the Yanks came in. And the Poles are trying hard to be just as good calamity adjusters as their American god-fathers. Seventy per cent of the government is with Paderewski and it is certain that his ideas about democracy will be realized. * * *"

Preceding the ex-mayor's talk Chas Fossdick, the president of the society, read the paper on "Rev. Barton," written by Ensley Moore of Jacksonville, Ill., to which place the Bartons moved following Mr. Barton's dismissal as pastor of the local church. A sermon which was preached by Mr. Barton at the outbreak of the war of 1812 was also read by Miss Mary Garfield, and extracts from a history dealing with the Bartons were read by Ebenezer Bailey, the secretary.

Mr. Barton was the first pastor of the Calvinistic Congregational church of this city, assuming the pastorate in 1803 and retaining the position until 1812, when he was dismissed because he tried to weld religion and politics, contrary to the desires of his parishioners, chief among whom was Deacon Ephraim Kimball. The controversy which arose between Mr. Barton and Deacon Kimball is one of the most important events of the early history of Fitchburg because it came at a time when the independent church was formed, free of all town ties, and because what followed did much to abolish the church-and-state idea, old as the British Isles.

The old minister was born in 1766 at Granby and when a mere boy, he served in the revolutionary war, during which he experienced many lurid adventures. He was graduated from Dartmouth college and studied medicine, but he never practiced, preferring the ministry.

It was in 1812 that the controversy between himself and Deacon Kimball arose. It seems that Mr. Barton had aspirations for the state council and that his parishioners did not share these aspirations.

Then came trouble. The outcome was that Mr. Barton not only was unable to accept the election to the council but also was unable to retain his pastorate. He was dismissed and started off toward Jacksonville, Ill. He never reached his intended home for heart failure overcame him on the way and his family was forced to plod on alone. His sermon, which dealt with politics at the outbreak of the war of 1812, shows that Mr. Barton was a forceful and free thinker and a man not hypocritical enough to let advancement stand in the way of right.

Miss Theresa Garfield, librarian, made an interesting report. She reported that numerous relics, papers and other interesting material have been donated to the society during the last month.

GO TO CHICAGO TO

MEET GLENN SKINNER

Among local people who expected to be in Chicago today to witness the big parade were Mrs. Glenn Skinner, her mother, Mrs. Della Smith, and G. V. Skinner. They go with the expectation of meeting Glenn Skinner, musician first class, 108th engineers, who will be in the parade with other members of the company, the 125d and 124th field artillery. Mrs. Skinner and mother will return tomorrow but Mr. Skinner will probably remain for a longer stay. Glenn Skinner will go from Chicago to Camp Grant for discharge and in all probability will reach Jacksonville during the first days of the week.

RETURNS FROM STAY

AT SANATORIUM

Mrs. A. L. Adams and daughter, Miss Helen Adams, returned to this city Wednesday from Naperville, Ill., where the latter has been for the past several months under treatment at the Edward Sanatorium. Miss Adams' many friends will be glad to know that she returns greatly improved in health.

AN INTERESTING PICTURE.

H. J. Rodgers has a copy of the Chicago Evening Journal which contains an interesting picture, especially to one so vitally interested in the subject. It is a copy of a photograph taken of the Military Police of the 108th Regiment marching thru the streets of Chicago and led by Captain Thos. C. Kiloran. The likenesses of the captain and Jay Rodgers are very good and both present a soldierly appearance. Those present say while the men were marching Mrs. Kiloran suddenly spied her husband and rushed to him and threw her arms about his neck much to the delight, principally of the gallant officer and also of the sympathetic spectators.

BY CHARLES KLEIN

WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT THIS ONE?

The star is Ethel Clayton.

The play is by Charles Klein. It was one of Rose Stahl's greatest successes.

It's a story about a bright, "peppery" saleslady in a department store. A drama full of smiles and heart throbs.

In the cast are Elliott Dexter, Winifred Greenwood, Tully Marshall, Raymond Hatton, Marcia Manon, Billy Elmer and Clarence H. Geldart.

Ought to be good, eh?

Well it is good.

Another of those productions that are quickly making Ethel Clayton's name a guarantee for a mighty entertaining picture.

This sentiment which first made its appearance last December appears to have become stronger very recently.

Privy Counsellor Bergman, formerly a partner in the German Edison Company and one of the largest electrical magnates here suggests a German-American partnership with America the senior and the controlling partner.

Where Can I Find Relief from Itching, Terrifying Eczema?

This Question is Ever on the Lips of the Afflicted

Eczema, tetter, erysipelas, and other terrifying conditions of the skin, are deep-seated blood diseases, and applications of salves, lotions and washes can only afford temporary relief, without reaching the real seat of the trouble. But just because local treatment has done you no good, there is no reason to despair. You simply have not sought the proper treatment, that is within your reach.

You have the experience of others who have suffered as you have, to guide you to a prompt riddance of blood and skin diseases. No matter how terrifying the irritation, no matter how unbearable the itching and burning of the skin, S. S. S. will promptly reach the seat of the trouble and forever root from the blood every trace of the disease, just as it has for others who have suffered as you have. This grand blood remedy has been used for more than fifty years, and you have only to give it a fair trial to be restored to perfect health.

Our chief medical adviser is an authority on blood and skin disorders, and he will take pleasure in giving you such advice as your individual case may need, absolutely without cost. Write today describing your case to Medical Department, Swift, Specific Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

A SINGULAR
SANITARY FACT

An old time army officer remarked to the writer recently that one cause of dysentery in the army was the manner of washing under wear. He said underclothes washed in hot soap suds and not rinsed afterward would promote dysentery on the part of the wearer and the gentleman spoke whereof he knew. A surgeon or doctor could probably explain the matter and a man who tried it could tell the result.

COMRADES MEET

John Criswell of Waverly was attending to affairs in the city yesterday. He is a brother of the late William Criswell who was one of the famous eight who belonged to the 14th Infantry and went thru the civil war three years in one mess, were in the average number of engagements and endured the usual hardships and all returned home without having been wounded or obliged to go to a hospital on account of illness.

For more than 40 years the mess was unbroken and finally Mr. Criswell passed away and since that time all but one have answered the final summons.

John Criswell yesterday met one of his mates, John Brown of this city. Both were members of the famous Rogers' battery and saw plenty of hard fighting. Mr. Brown brought home another injury. He took cold lying on damp ground while recovering from an attack of measles and since that time his eyes have not been first class. Captain Rogers visited the city a few years ago and was met by some of his men who were greatly delighted to see him. Since that time he too has gone to the great beyond.

Claude Franklin and wife of the northwest part of the county were city callers yesterday. They were accompanied by their guest, J. H. Franklin of Morristown, Tenn.

The Mission of Swift & Company

Swift & Company has become one of the large businesses of the world through continuing to meet the growing needs of a nation and a world.

Society has a right to ask how the increasing responsibilities and opportunities for usefulness which go with such growth are being used by the men who direct its affairs—and the men have the right to answer:

To promote the production of live stock and perishables and increase the food supply;

To reach more people with more and better meat;

To make a fair competitive profit, in order to reimburse the 25,000 shareholders for the use of their capital, and to provide for the future development of the business;

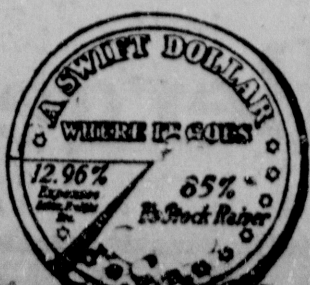

To reduce to a minimum the costs of preparing and distributing meat and to divide the benefits of efficiency with producer and consumer;

To live and let live, winning greater business only through greater usefulness, with injury to nothing but incompetency, inefficiency, and waste; to deal justly, fairly, and frankly with all mankind.

These are the purposes and motives of the men who direct the policies and practices of Swift & Company.

LITERBERRY SOCIETY PLANS ANNUAL PICNIC

Members of Methodist Society to Meet at Arcadia Church Friday for Annual Picnic—A "Snake" Story—Other News Items.

Literberry, June 3.—The Literberry M. E. society will meet at Arcadia church Friday afternoon for their annual picnic. Rev. J. O. Kirkpatrick will speak to the people. There will be refreshments for all and everybody is invited. A reasonable admittance will be charged.

Cards have been received of the marriage of Miss June Turley daughter of M. . . . Turley of Ft. Scott, Kansas, to Grant W. Harris, of Yuma, Colorado, on the 28th. The best wishes of all Illinois friends go to this worthy couple.

Rev. A. J. Wolfe and wife of Dungannon, Virginia, and Mrs. Dr. Wolfe of Jacksonville made us a pleasant call Monday afternoon on their way to "Shamrock Cottage" to visit Mr. and Mrs. Anna Weller of Green Ridge, Mo., and her son, William H., a soldier just returned from France spent last week with the Deavers family and Jesse Liter and wife, and John Daniels and family. Some of our people drove to Arcadia cemetery on Decoration Day, taking with them many beautiful flowers.

Mrs. Dave Campbell and daughters of Jacksonville spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Sarah Stevenson.

Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald and daughter Ruth of Jacksonville attended Sunday school at the Baptist Church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Cooper are rejoicing over the return of their soldier son, Carl, who came home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Liter, of Oakdale farm entertained friends at a 12 o'clock dinner Sunday.

A rather "serio-comic" incident happened in our village one day last week which proves the old adage, "It's an ill wind that blows no one any good."

There is a good looking, intelligent woman living on Peoria boulevard, who is an excellent neighbor, and a fine good woman but awfully afraid of snakes.

This lady is a fine housekeeper neat and clean, very sanitary and careful of drains etc., but terribly afraid of snakes. Thinking her cellar needed sweeping, she shouldered her broom and proceeded cellar-ward. Stopping on the bottom step she looked for a snake; she felt certain there would be a snake; seeing nothing that looked like a snake, she was wonderfully relieved and went to work. After sweeping a while she saw something wriggling in the middle of cellar floor; a snake, of course and a big one too.

No one can tell how quick that lady came up the cellar steps any one can tell how loud she shouted, "Snake!" Had the snake been as large in proportion to the racket she made, he would have been a whopper.

A brave young lady next door went to the rescue. Picking up a stick she proceeded down the cellar very carefully, peering around into every corner. She was about to give up the chase, when she saw something near the center of the cellar, wriggling around. She marched bravely up to it and found a large angle worm. She picked it up and after showing it to the frightened woman, went directly to the store of J. A. Liter & Co. where she cashed the worm for a penny. Mr. Joe put it in his live box for future use, and there you are.

WILLARD KNOCKS OUT SPARRING PARTNER

TOLEDO, O., June 4.—Jess Willard increased his boxing to four rounds today, knocked out a sparring partner, and after the incident, attempted to explain to newspaper experts that the victim slipped, striking his head on the floor of the ring.

Walter Monahan, who is in Willard's camp on a furlough from the army, boxed with the champion for the first time in several months and hit the canvas in dizzy condition after boxing two minutes. Monahan, although out of condition, set a furious pace for Willard and Jess shot out a left jab and missed. He followed it with a short straight right hand punched to the peak of the chin and Monahan tumbled into a heap.

It was a clean knockout despite Willard's explanations.

Admission was charged to watch the champion go thru his paces today and a capacity crowd was in attendance.

"LIBERTY SIX"

A Difference That Spells Goodness

Because every feature singles it out from the commonplace, the appearance of the Liberty invariably arouses admiration.

Because of the good things they hear from owners, people are always interested in confirming their first impressions of Liberty quality. Because of the notable difference in the way the Liberty rides and drives, the first becomes a revelation of inherent superiority. These impressions of goodness are multiplied with every day's experience.

What people have seen, heard and experienced of Liberty quality is best expressed by the profusion of enthusiastic letters from Liberty owners.

A FRIEND
Speaks some one evil of thy hushed friend. Believe him not, thy friend with zeal defend.
Speaks the whole world with the right malicious might. Mistrust the world and give thy friend the right.
'Tis he who steadfast by his friend doth stand deserves the gift of friend from heaven's own hand.
A loyal friend is such a jewel rare. That earth yield naught that with it may compare.
A jewel near whose gleaming shadows deep, mysterious powers, in sacred silence sleep.
The voice of faith alone these powers may wake. And bid their wonders live for love's sweet sake.
Beneath the breath of doubt, thy friend faint and die. If thou in truth canst say, "I have a friend."
Let faithful love that faithful friend defend. Let the whole world but as a setting be, to clasp the gem that is so dear to thee.
'Tis thou, the gem that sings its worth attains. Lose we the gem, what worth to treasure then?
Ever as a beazar goes thou, through land, rich art thou with a friend at thy command.
And thou, the crown of kings may press the brow. And friendless art yet, desolate art thou.

MORE RED BLOOD AND STEADIER NERVES FOR RUN DOWN PEOPLE

The World Demands, Strong, Vigorous,
Keen-Minded, Men and Women

It has been said of Americans that they work their habits overtime.

Many become nervous and inefficient by overwork.

By worry, despondency, social affairs, robbing brain and body of needed rest; excessive use of tobacco, indulgence in strong alcoholic drink—excesses of every kind that burn up the vital powers so necessary in these trying times to make both men and women fit to be of help to themselves and others.

It is time to be temperate in all things. The man or woman with impaired nerves caused by impoverished blood lacks vigor, the ambition, the endurance and the keen mind of those who avoid excesses.

Timidity, despondency, fear, trembling hands, want of confidence and even cowardliness, are due in a large measure to shrunken nerves.

People with plenty of red blood corpuscles and strong, healthy nerves have no desire to shirk work and lean on others for guidance and support.

There is hardly a nerve-shattered man or woman (unless of an organic disease) in America today who cannot become alert and clear in mind; vigorous and energetic in body in a very few weeks and at trifling cost.

To become strong and ambitious, to feel that work is not drudgery; to have steady nerves, abundance of red blood and power of endurance; to be not only a man but a man who goes, a superman, you must take seven tablets of Bioferex every day for seven days—and take them faithfully.

Take two after each meal and one at bedtime and after seven days take one only after meal until the supply is exhausted.

Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if your nerves are not twice as steady as before; if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen-minded, the pharmacist who dispensed the tablets to you will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.

Bioferex is without doubt the grandest remedy for nervous, rundown, weak, anemic men and women ever offered direct through druggists and is not at all expensive. All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand—sell many packages.

Alfalfa in Morgan County.

In the current issue of the Prairie Farmer is an interesting article about alfalfa in this locality. Herman Steen an associate editor of that paper recently made a trip thru this county and visited a number of farms where alfalfa is grown. The article is under the heading "Alfalfa Helps Make Morgan County Prosperous."
With the article appears a picture of the farrowing house house, 234 feet long recently built on A. M. Master farm near Murrayville. The interesting article is reprinted herewith.

Alfalfa is winning a good many good friends among the farmers in Morgan County, Illinois. Its splendid worth as hog pasture, as hay for all kinds of livestock, and incidentally for soil improvement has commended this plant to the favorable consideration of many livestock farmers.

As I rode around the county
one day not long ago with County Advisor George B. Kendall, I learned that practically all the successful growers of alfalfa in Morgan county are agreed that there are three essential points to look out for when starting alfalfa. These three things are inoculation use of limestone on most soils, and fall seeding.
There are, of course, several other factors which enter in, but these seem to be the all-important things.

Purebred Durocs on Alfalfa.

Six or seven miles southeast of Jacksonville we stopped at Lester A. Reed's place and saw Lester's purebred Durocs enjoying themselves on alfalfa pasture.
Like the other men whom we saw later in the day Reed lays strong emphasis upon using plenty of limestone to make the soil a fit place for alfalfa, upon inoculation
so that the plants are gathering nitrogen from the air instead of trying to make a sickly living by feeding off the scanty nitrogen supply in the soil, and upon sowing the seed late in summer on a thoroughly-prepared seed bed.

Reed has grown alfalfa for eight or nine years, and he figures that it is one of the best paying crops on his farm. The thriftiness and stretch in his Duroc shoats he attributes to the fact that they spend a considerable proportion of their time eating the rich and palatable young alfalfa shoots.
All his Durocs, from the old boars down to the young porkers just big enough to run around, are kept either on alfalfa or some other pasture as much of the time as Reed can keep them
there.

After his hogs do as much damage to the alfalfa as they can, Reed gets out the mower and cuts
a good crop of hay three times or so in the season. This is the backbone of the ration which his horses receive—alfalfa with a very little grain at light work and alfalfa with only a moderate amount of grain at heavy work.

Hundreds of Hogs on Alfalfa.

Farther south, on the A. M.
Masters land near Woodson, we found the most extensive alfalfa grower in Morgan county. Masters uses his crop also for hog pasture but he differs from Reed in that he grows hogs mostly for market. He has grown as much as 100 acres of alfalfa at once.

Masters is now embarking into the purebred Duroc hog business that is making all the hog enthusiasts in the Jacksonville country sit up and take notice.
An idea of the magnitude of his operations can be gotten from the picture of the big farrowing house, which is 234 feet long and has a double row of farrowing pens. It has room for about 75 sows at once. Masters has 128 sows in all this year, 52 of which had farrowed 397 live pigs up to the day I was there. Some of these were several weeks old, and the men on the farm were entertaining high hopes of raising an average of seven pigs per sow.
Masters has a 4,000 bushel self-feeder for his fattening hogs nearby, so that my guess is that Frank Drury had better look out or Masters will be putting more hogs on the market than he does.

Masters has been growing alfalfa a number of years on his prairie land, using it for hog pasture, horse pasture and hay.
He finds that limestone, inoculation and late summer seeding are the things essential to success with alfalfa.

Alfalfa for Fattening Steers.

Just west of Jacksonville lives
Harry E. Kitner, feeder of cattle, grower of alfalfa, and good farmer generally. Kitner was just finishing up two loads of very choice whitefaces for market, and they were fed about 180 days the ration being all the silage and alfalfa hay they wanted, thruout the entire feeding period, an average of two pounds or so of cottonseed meal daily, and an allowance of corn small at the start,
but increasing up to 14 pounds per steer per day. Kitner is counted one of the best cattle-feeders in Morgan county. He keeps in the game every year and adopts himself to conditions pretty well a fact which probably explains why he is feeding steers every year. Kitner was one of the first men in Morgan county to use silage as a heavy part of steers' rations.

Kitner is handicapped by having only 120 acres of land, but he makes up for this by making his acres work double. His eight acre field of five-year old alfalfa is the best I have seen this year anywhere in Illinois. This field yields around five tons per acre year after year, with three cuttings each year. Kitner puts a great deal of emphasis upon having land in shape to grow alfalfa before sowing the seed. His field was covered with 1,500 pounds per acre of rock phosphate, two and one half tons per acre of limestone, the ground was worked so many times that he lost count, then the seed was put in the garden-like seed bed. The seed was inoculated, of course.

Kitner advises strongly against pasturing alfalfa and also against cutting it too late in the season. He lays considerable emphasis upon cutting each crop at the right time. He is careful to cultivate two or three times each season with an alfalfa cul-timator to keep out the bluegrass and pep up the old alfalfa plants.
Since Kitner is the most successful alfalfa grower in the county,
his recommendation are necessarily worth considering carefully.

Dairying in Morgan County.

A few miles farther west of stopped at A. L. French's dairy farm, a tract of 500 acres that has been farmed over 90 years
by members of the French family.
French is a banker-farmer, but he needs to make no apology for the title, since he was a farmer first and got into the banking business as a sideline. His purebred Guernseys have attracted much attention thruout Morgan county, where dairy cattle of any sort are almost a novelty. French is thoroughly convinced that there must be more dairy cows in Morgan county if the productivity of the soil is to be maintained.
"For half a century this section was known for cattle-feeding, and feed lots dotted the hills and valleys," he said. "Most of the cattle-feeders have disappeared,
and the land is going down hill.
Thousands of hogs are fed, but they do not maintain fertility well. Now I am turning to dairying with the hope that I will thus be enabled to maintain fertility without resort to mineral fertilizers."

Other people around Chapin are getting interested in dairying and a considerable number of cows are milked, tho no large dairies have been established. A little creamery found its way into Chapin, and tho planted there by a professional promoter it happened to be the one in 1,000
thus established to succeed.

Farther northwest we stopped a minute at Charlie Drake's to see his alfalfa, which was well populated with Chester White hogs at the time Charlie has been growing alfalfa several years and has found the same things to be necessary which other alfalfa-growers told us were the basis of alfalfa-growing—use of plenty of limestone, inoculated seed, and a well-prepared seed bed ready for good seed late in the summer.

On east thru Joy Prairie and back to Jacksonville we saw few cattle on feed, but many spring pigs. Morgan county is changing from what it was 25 years ago, the old-timers told us. There is another change worth thinking about, and that is the large increase that has been taking place in the number of tenant-occupied farms. A good bit of land is being concentrated in the hands of non-producing citizens in Jacksonville—not so much perhaps as in Springfield or Decatur, but nevertheless enough to cause anxiety among the thinking people.—H. S.
